December 3, 2015

To the saints of Christ's church that meets at Fairview Park with the elders and deacons. We send you greetings and joy for our common faith and hope in the Lord.

It is hard to believe that there is less than a month before a new year. I have enjoyed some vacation the last several days, although I never was able to put together an itinerary for travel.

The Wednesday evening class is progressing well in its study of Hebrews. We have more people attending now, and that is encouraging. I had a private meeting with a brother regarding his declining participation in the work here. I believe the result has been effective as he and his wife are now regularly attending the mid-week Bible class.

For our Sunday morning class, we have decided to study Daniel. I am happy for this decision and look forward to the study.

We have had members being out of town this month as well. We also have a brother that finds it increasingly difficult to get out of his house. He had some back and neck surgery years ago that did not go well and he is really paying for it now. Others continue with their ailments yet God blesses us one and all.

I am encouraging a member to preach, at least on a periodic basis. He wants to do this and his progress has been most satisfying. He is visibly more comfortable standing before us and his presentations are smoother. His content has always been worthy of consideration. Lately, however, he has developed an eye issue. The cornea in his left eye is contorted in some fashion that adversely affects his vision and subsequently his ability to read and study his Bible. The downside is that he has had to take a step back from his once a month scheduled preaching. Hopefully the doctors will figure out a plan of treatment that will allow him to study as he desires.

I am having a series of doctor's and dentist's visits. Comparatively minor stuff, yet it needs attending.

Again, as always, thank you for your continued support of me and the work in Wilsonville. Please continue your prayers on our behalf. We continue to pray for you and the success of your work in Arkansas.

In Christ,

Kevin R. Fermenick,
Evangelist
