November 2018 Report

Dear Brethren,

Our fall Home Bible Studies are now in full swing and the attendance has been better than we had expected. We are having some people who have never attended before. The subjects which were chosen by the members here are: The Wonderful Life Of Disciples; The Life Of Peter; Why Did Peter Forget; The Life Of Apollos; The Christian's Characteristics.

As reported last month, Mardi and I are continuing a private study with a member and her grandson. The studies are centered on the Lord's Church, its function, work and organization.

We also have continued the singing class with those men who wish to become song leaders. One of the men who has worked so diligently has shown much progress. He leads some on Sunday mornings and Wednesday nights.

Mardi and I were gone one of the weeks of the month working with other brethren in a gospel meeting. The time spent working with them in the gospel of Christ was very enjoyable

Sermons and studies for the month included: Characteristics Of A Great Personality; What Does Our Hope Cause; A Christians Individual Obligations; Our Church Obligations; Six Things You Will Never Forget; What Is Today; We Have So Much To Remember; Thanksgiving; We Must Continue.

The attitude of the brethren here appears to be better that it has ever been. Everyone is engaged in doing what they are able to do in the work of the Lord. This is what happens there is peace and harmony among brethren.

Mardi and I again thank you brethren so much for your continued fellowship with us in the preaching the gospel in Van Buren. Without your help we would not be able to do so. May our Lord bless you in your work for Him.

Brotherly,
