August 2019 Report

Dear brethren:

Hello once again in the name of our good Creator! My, how the time does fly! Does it seem to any of you that the year will soon be over? Such does not seem so with me. As always when reporting to you, Sue and I hope you are all faring well.

Our Sister Jeanie Davis has spent considerable time in the hospital, and as well, undergoing rehabilitation afterwards. She first had a contagious virus to deal with, then of recent, an intestinal blockage. Both has been taken care of, but she is still undergoing rehabilitation. She is widowed. Please pray for her, as she has had to deal with a number of medical situations over the years.

Another widowed lady in our midst, Sister JoAnne Patterson, is in Tulsa, Oklahoma, staying with her daughter, recovering from heart related surgery. Her situation, we all feel, including her, is the after affects of having to deal with a very sick man for a number of years. You may recall my mentioning him in some of my past reports. As often happens, the caretaker often suffers when conducting long term care to a patient.

On the 8th of this month, Sue and I traveled to the Fairview congregation in Little Rock Arkansas, where I preached at both services on the Lord's Day. A number of fine comments were made on both sermons, and of course, yours truly gives God the glory. I saw what I expected no less of from them, that being their love for the truth and a friendly group of brethren. Fairview is one of the churches helping with my support.

We are continuing to study from the book, "The Four Fold Gospel," co-written by J. W. McGarvey and Philip Y. Pendelton. This book is studied in both the Sunday morning and Wednesday evening auditorium classes. The study has brought much class participation, which is certainly a blessing to me as the teacher.

I remind you to please spread the word, especially if you plan to visit Branson sometime, that the afternoon service on Sunday is now at 2:00 o'clock, instead of 5:00, as was the case for a number of years. We started meeting at this time the first of last year.

Please feel free to check out our website at www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com. We hope you like the site's appearance, as well as the articles contained therein.

I have mentioned Sue's faithful mother in the Lord, that being Sister Joelle Caffee. She turned 89 the 16th of this month. The woman has suffered from dementia for several years now, as you may recall my previously saying. Sad to say, a few short weeks ago, she was diagnosed with lung cancer. Please pray for her and the Caffee family.

Very soon, I will be purchasing a new computer tower. I have pressed my luck with the one I now have, and I need to make this change before the tower crashes. Therefore, if any of you try to reach me by email without a reply, you will know the reason why.

Well, that seems to be all there is to report up to this moment. Thank you all much again for your financial support. Such is truly appreciated. Do come visit us anytime at Eagle Rock Road. A warm welcome awaits you.
