

Dear brethren:

Praying that all is well with each of you during this ongoing pandemic. Being as I must send my reports texting through my phone, I will need to send them in 2 parts. Please bear with me here.

Sue has recovered well from the virus and her pneumonia. We are grateful to all who have prayed for us. We certainly have prayed for all our brethren on this matter.

www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com is our website.

We remain studying in our auditorium class from the book, "The Four Fold Gospel" co-written by J. W McGarvey and Philip Y. Pendleton. As stated in the past, most of these class sessions have brought class participation. I as the teacher appreciate this.

I have invited 3 different couples to services recently whom I have known for a while. So far though, no success. Please pray for me on this matter that as Jesus said, I will find someone where the seed of God will fall into good ground.

You will recall my saying in last month's report that due to some of our own members' contracting the COVID virus, we cancelled services the last 3 Sundays of the year. Those members have now recovered, and we began meeting last Lord's Day.

Yours truly was hit with a "bug" this past week, resulting in some fever, mild chills, body aches, and a mild cough. The first 3 were gone in 24 hours. I went to the doctor, he gave me one prescription consisting of 5 days worth of pills, and I am now fine. To play it safe, I was tested for the virus. Like last month, I was negative.

Some of our own members are still afraid to venture out to services, for the greater part. They have been apologetic for this. We all pray for an end to this pandemic most soon, do we not?

Please continue to pray for Sue's 90 year old Christian mother, suffering from the advanced stages of Alzheimer's Disease. As you would surmise this has been quite a taxing on her family. Such a sad way to leave this earthly life!

Our elderly widowed sister in the Lord, Jeanie Davis, has been ill for sometime now. She is in a nursing home in nearby Springfield, recovering and receiving therapy from a torn stomach muscle.

That appears to be all for now. Thank you all once again for your financial assistance. Do come visit us anytime.

May God continue to bless you in His Kingdom.

Brotherly,
Philip North

Dear brethren:

There has truly been some bitter, cold, and icy days thus far this winter for many of us. Services here were twice cancelled. I hope all of you pulled through well.

I say again that I am sorry for any of you who have been ill with the COVID-19 virus, along with you who have lost loved ones due to this virus. I know we are all praying for this virus to dissipate, so that life, freedom, and services can return to normal.

There are 3, possibly 4, out of town preaching engagements awaiting me this year. Thus far, no dates have been confirmed, but when they are, I will let it be known.

Remember our website: Type www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com.

Please continue to pray for Sue's mother, Sister Jo Elle Caffee, far in the stages of Dementia. Please pray also for our Sister Jeanie Davis on her maladies she battles, along with being in a nursing home on lockdown. She is the elderly widow of our late and beloved Brother Charles Davis. Too, please keep in your prayers our Sister JoAnne Patterson, also widowed and aged, who is as well trying to recover from some health problems. Then, there is our Sister Geneva Hurst suffering from bad leg pain. She hopes to have surgery on this before long.

Please pray that we will recognize doors of opportunity opened to us in scattering the Word abroad.

We are nearing the end of our study in the book "The Four Fold Gospel," co-written by J. W. McGarvey and Philip Y. Pendleton.

This is all the news I have for now. Thank you much, as always, for your continued financial support. Do come visit us anytime. May God keep us all in the hollow of His hand. Take care, brethren.

In Christ,

Philip North

I do hope this "freeze" most of us experienced is over, though spring is not here yet. Two services were cancelled last month. However, March began with good results and a new hope concerning the pandemic. Hope all of you and your loved ones are okay.

The February sermons were a two part series on attitudes a Christian should possess.

Please pray for Sue and her family concerning her mother, Sister Jo Elle Caffee, stricken with Demementia, and now in a nursing home on a trial basis.

I am scheduled to hold a gospel meeting in Pekin, Indiana September 12-17. I have been with these brethren previously. They assist in my support. There are pulpit swaps planned, but no definite dates set as yet.

We are slowly nearing the end of our auditorium study on "The Four Fold Gospel," co-written by J. W. McGarvey and Philip Y. Pendleton. It had been an interesting book for me to teach from, along with much class participation.

I remind all of our website: www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com. Hope you like it.

That seems all for now. Thank you much again for your financial support. Do come visit us anytime in Branson.

In Christ,
Philip S. North

Dear brethren:

Well, another spring is upon us, and I for one feel glad. The law of wearing a mask to all public places will be lifted next month, according to a young lady I spoke with from a Springfield T.V. station. I hope that does not change. Hope all of you are doing well Sue and I are okay, except for Sue's usual sine and sciatica trouble.

We look forward to being with the brethren in Pekin, Indiana in mid September, Lord willing, where I will preach in a gospel meeting. I have been there before.

I am embarrassed to tell you, but somehow, some way, and somewhere I have misplaced my notebook where I record the attendance and contribution each week, along with my sermon topics. If and when I find it, I will drop a special line to all of you with the catch-up information. This is the very first time such has happened.

Our members who have been out due to the COVID virus say they hope to be back with us very soon. In the meantime, there has been some degree of normalcy returned to our attendance. The largest number thus far since the virus has been 29.

Our website is www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com. We would appreciate it if you would "like" it, as such is worded, anytime you visit the site, along with liking us on Facebook.

One of our elderly widows, Sister Jeanie Davis, is slowly recovering from a bad rupture. She misses being at services, and I ask you to please pray for her complete recovery. She is 81.

Recently, we had a man over at my house to repair the icemaker on my refrigerator. He is the owner of the company. He is good at P. R., and attends with his family at a local denomination where they are engaged in what you and I know as the "Charismatic Movement." We have invited him to study with us and worship with us. Please pray that the Seed of God falls into good ground, as Jesus spoke in the Parable of the Sower.

We have just 3 more sections to study in the auditorium class on "The Four Fold Gospel," co-written by J.W. McGarvey and Philip Y. Pendleton. This has most often brought much class participation. After this study ends, we will return to studying various books of the Bible, as we have aforetime.

This seems to be all the news at the present. Thank you so much again for your financial support. Hope you can visit us some time here in Branson.

May Jehovah God bless you all richly in His Kingdom and in the Spread of the Gospel of His dear son, Jesus Christ.

In His Name,
Philip North

Dear brethren:

Hello in the good Lord's name! Hope all are making it well during the COVID. So far, I have avoided it, and Sue has not experienced a relapse.

Sue's sister, Sister Linda Whitlock, and her husband, Brother Kenny, recently came down with COVID, with Linda's being more ill. Both were hospitalized. Please pray for them.

Happily, some of our own number have returned to services. The Hursts rejoined us on the 25th, and Sister JoAnne Patterson returned this past Lord's Day. We do thank God here! What I am also thankful for is that the members have made up some of their contribution. We commend them here.

I remind you to please check our website. Type in www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com. Feel free to use any of the articles you read for publication in your bulletins.

Our Sister Jeanie Davis is still confined to her condo after extensive rehabilitation in a nursing home in nearby Springfield. Too, she no longer fears receiving visitors. However, she still feels unable to drive anywhere.

I may have said previously, but Sue's mother, Sister Jo Elle Caffee, afflicted with Dementia, is now in a nursing home. She is on her way to being 91.

We finished the book in our auditorium class on "The Four Fold Gospel," co-written by J. W. McGarvey and Philip Y. Pendleton. Much of the time, it brought class participation. We will study some one chapter Bible books, until we decide what material to order on edification and encouragement.

I am to hold a gospel meeting in Pekin, Indiana in mid September. I have been with them in the past, and they are assisting with my financial support. I look forward to seeing them again, as they do love the truth of God.

Please pray that the talk Sue and I had with an appliance repair man recently develops into a Bible Study.

That is all for now. Thanks to all so much for your financial help. Do come see us. Branson has dropped the mask law. Take care.

Brotherly,
Philip North

Dear brethren:

Greetings once again in His name. The attendance here at Eagle Rock is increasing, as well as the tourism in Branson. We are thankful for this. We have returned to assembling on Wednesday evening, but still see the need to cancel Sunday afternoon. We of course hope to return to doing so. I know ALL of us wish to put this pandemic behind us.

Brother and Sister Hurst have begun meeting with us again. Sister Hurst (Geneva) has undergone a couple of serious leg operations to remove blood clots. She is slowly recovering, and she was in good spirits when returning to us June 6th. Too, as stated before, they both have been afraid to venture out during the pandemic.

Sister Jeanie Davis still undergoes therapy. Please pray for her and the Hursts.

Here is the attendance and contributions for May 2021:

Date: Attendance: Offering:

2.	14.	$1,861.00

16.	17.	$440.00

30.	29.	$248.00

Thankfully, some made up for their offerings while absent.

I mention again our website at www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com. Again, feel free to use any of the articles seen.

Currently in our auditorium class, we are studying Jude.

The sermon topics for May were as follows:

2nd---Enemies of the Cross(1)
9th----Enemies of the Cross(2)
16th--Enemies of the Cross(3)
23rd--God Is No Respector of Persons
30th---The Eyes

Perhaps some of you know of the recent passing of Brother Ed Bragwell, faithful gospel preacher long time in Fultondale, Alabama. I knew him and his love for the truth.

Sue and I are recovering from a mild cold and mild cough, but the doctors assure us they are not Covid related.

That seems to be all for now. Thank you all so much for your lended support. Do come visit us anytime. May Jehovah richly bless you in His Kingdom and the Gospel.

In His Name,
Philip North

Dear brethren:

I sincerely pray all of you are making it through the (now) 2 pandemics. As truly goes the saying, "These are the times that try men's souls."

Below are the attendance and contributions for July 2021:

Date: Attendance: Offering:

4.	67.	$1,080
11.	29.	$300
18.	19.	$686
25.	29.	$453

For those interested, the subjects I spoke on in July were: (1) Baptism (2) Lessons From Radio (1) (3) Lessons From Radio (2) and (4) Lessons From Radio (3)

I spent 15 years in radio when younger, and I applied some of my experience from which to draw spiritual lessons.

Our aged Sister JoAnne Patterson underwent more back surgery recently, and says she is recovering well, though in much pain. Understood.

Our aged Sister Jeanie Davis remains in her condo, still unable to move more than a few steps at a time without having to stop.

Sue continues to battle spinal trouble, and was supposed to receive some relief shots twice, but the doctors have still postponed it. In the meantime, she still suffers much pain. This has been going on for several years.

Remember our website at www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com.

Sue and I will be gone to Melbourne, Florida the week of August 22nd. Brother Lynn Huggins from nearby St. James will fill in for me.

Brother Bruce Emerson, who is our songleader, and his wife, Sister Demetra, have had to battle different ailments in recent weeks. He with a bad sinus infection and hacking cough, and she with kidney trouble. Both are somewhat better now, although she has experienced difficulties since changing medicine.

This is all for now. As always, thank you all so much for your financial support, along with your words of encouragement when visiting us. Take care, and may the good Lord see us all through these pandemics safely. God's speed to you all.

In His Name,
Philip North

Dear brethren:

My, how the year is flying by! Then again, such has always been the case with time.

I always pray that each of you are doing well. Sue continues with her back pain. Twice she should have been given shots of relief, but she is still being put off. Hence, her spinal pain naturally continues. Please pray, everybody, that she sees relief very soon. I for one feel for that good lady, and to be quit honest, am somewhat irritated at the doctors on this.

From the 12th--17th of this month, I will preach in a gospel meeting in New Pekin, Indiana. Sue will accompany me. I have visit there previously. It will good to be back there. I always feel much "at home" there. They help to support me.

On the 5th of this month, I delivered a memorial sermon here in Branson on the upcoming 20th anniversary of 9-11. It was not a political speech, I assure you, and I cited plenty of Bible scripture. Many fine comments were made, and of course, all glory goes to God.

Hope all of you are doing well during these pandemics. I pray for your safety. Please pray for ours.

I thank Brothers Lynn Huggins of Springfield and G. W. Walsh of Rogers, Arkansas for filling in for me while gone during my time gone in August.

Remember to check out our website. Type in www.eaglerockroadchurchofchrist.com. We hope you enjoy the articles contained therein.

Our aged Sister JoAnne Patterson underwent yet more surgery, this time due to a severe fall recently. This good woman has "been through the mill." Please pray that she is spared any further mishaps.

As well, our aged Sister Jeanie Davis continues to remain indoors. She is hardly able to walk. I fear for her, I know that God controls all.

This is all I now have to report. Thank you all once more for your financial support and words of encouragement. They mean a lot to all of us.

May Jehovah God richly bless you in His Kingdom, and in the spread of the Gospel of Christ.

In His Name,
Philip North
